Father's Day Sunday

VOL. 70, NO. 11 | CANYON, TEXAS | THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1966 | 14 PAGES | 2 SECTIONS | TEN CENTS

Suspect Sought

Canyon Police and Randall County Sheriff's Officers are currently investigating a theft an embezzlement from an 81-year-old Canyon woman.

Mrs. Mattie Vandergriff, who lives at 407 22nd St., said a man, who said he represented Medicare, approached her Thursday morning and asked to see her papers concerning the federal health insurance.

She recalled that he did not call her by name until after she had shown him the papers, after which he informed her that she would need to pay $50 for coverage through July.

Mrs. Vandergriff gave the man the money and he wrote "Paid--$50" on the bottom of one of the letters, but did not sign his name.

He asked for a drink of water and when Mrs. Vandergriff returned, the man began a conversation about her grandchildren.

After he had thanked her and left, she discovered that another $80 was missing from her purse.

Mrs. Vandergriff had been saving the money to pay a hospital bill.

Sheriff's officers had questioned a man concerning the incident Tuesday and took him to Lubbock for a polygraph test, which he passed, said L.S. "Slim" Johnston, sheriff.

Morals Group Meets

The possibility of an extension of the Young Men's Christian Association of Amarillo with children of Canyon was discussed at a Sunday meeting of the Canyon Study and Research Committee.

Louis Hinders, chairman of the committee, reported he had met with a representative of the YMCA and the possibilities of transporting children to Amarillo for activities seemed favorable.

Charles Meredith, who had worked with a "Y" group in Enid, Okla., explained how the program functioned in that city and said, "the program, at least in that town, had real merit."

Hinders said he felt the program might help Canyon youth engage in activities that are not offered here and concluded, "the YMCA has a real Christian attitude."

The Rev. Charles Pederson presented a survey he had made of fourth through sixth graders in the Rex Reeves Elementary School.

He said the break-down of the 445 responses taken was 62, no

Tribute To "Dad"

Fathers throughout the nation will be honored with special tributes by their families on "Father's Day" Sunday, June 19.

Added to the family four years ago were Bob, 15, Guy, 14, Curtis, 11, and Colette, 8. The four children were born to a niece of the Patkes, the late Mrs. Bonita Brown Smith, who died seven years ago of a brain hemorrage. The children's father, John Smith, died two years and ten months later.

"Father's Day" at the Patke home west of Canyon, will "not be out of the ordinary" according to Mrs. Patke.

"We'll just have a regular Sunday, with milking twice-a-day and a big lunch," smiled Mrs. Patke.

But, throughout the day Father will be among the happiest dads in our community.

Composer Is Pleased With "Texas" Progress

"What they have done in one week is phenomenal" said composer Issac Van Grove as he watched rehearsals of "TEXAS" at Branding Iron Theatre this past week.

Van Grove, who is collaborating with Paul Green on the Panhandle Heritage Foundation production of "TEXAS" had high praise for members of the cast and their directors.

"They are young people and they are taking the parts of mature adults. They have good speaking voices."

The first collaboration of Van Grove and Green was a symphonic drama produced for Columbus Centennial, "The Seventeenth Star". They have also shared honors for the "Stephen Foster Story" and most recently, "Cross and Sword" which was produced at St. Augustine, Fla. this past year.

"They began to get active on "TEXAS" about three years ago. Paul and I get along...work very fast while I am at one end of the country and he is at the other. In his scripts the action he wants is written out and by reading the script I know what he wants the music to do. I feel comfortable working with Paul Green. He works with music well and loves folk music."

"Paul Green is a great research man. He has been working on this since autumn. We have kept the music simple, folksy, away from sophistication."

"The creative part is the most exciting. Now this is the period when the tightening begins. The cruel period. It's merciless....the show is the boss."

Tournament Deadline Nears, Golf Events Slated June 25

Registration deadline for the "Sports Spectacular" will be Tuesday at 12 noon according to Gerald Watson, chairman.

Sponsored by the Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce, the tournament in boy's golf will be held Saturday, June 25, at the Canyon City Club. Boys who will not have reached their 18th birthday by September 1 are eligible to enter the competition.

The local golf tournament will be conducted to select representatives to participate in the state Jaycee Sports Spectacular at Lubbock, July 7-9. An expense paid trip to the three day state meet in Lubbock awaits the first place winner in each division and the division runnerup.

Division categories will include the "novice division" for beginning and inexperienced golfers and the "open division" for advanced and more experienced golfers.

Eighteen holes of regular medal play will be used in the local tournament and the regular $1 green fee will be charged according to Watson.

Boys who sign-up with either Watson at Cooper's Market or with Gene Deeds at the Canyon City Club pro-shop will have facilities at the local golf club available for practice rounds prior to the tournament. Regular $1 club green fee will be charged.

Two boys from each division will receive expense paid trips to participate in the state tournament at Lubbock where events in track and tennis will also be held.

Winners at the state meet will receive an expense-paid trip to the National Junior Golf Tournament in Greensboro, N.C. August 7-12. Expenses to the national meet will be paid by the state Jaycees according to Watson.

Eight Blasts Denote Tornado

When Canyon residents hear eight blasts on the fire siren warning system they should be prepared to "head for the hills" as the sound denotes the approach of a tornado, said Joe Rice, Canyon Fire Department Captain.

The all-clear signal is six siren blasts, he said. Warning signal for day-time fires is two blasts, and four will be used during the night.

Whenever a tornado threatens, Rice said, volunteers will man all the fire-fighting equipment to patrol the city in an attempt to spot any turbulent weather conditions.

This decentralization of the equipment, Rice stated, is also a precautionary measure should a tornado destroy the CFD building.

Contract Renewed

The Data Processing and Computer Center of West Texas State University and the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Mines, have signed a year's agreement, under which the University will provide facilities required for the scientific and technical work of the Helium Activity, Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University has announced.

Soybean Seed Is Available

An early maturing soy bean, developed at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway is available to area farmers according to Jack Cloude, public relations representative.

"Most of them think we are out of the seed. When we first released it, we had extra high yields and we now have extra seed."

As Cloude explains it, the Patterson Certified Seed is of Foundation quality, will produce 25-35 bushels per acre, has a 95-115 day growing period and no allotment is needed.

It can be planted as a follow-up crop where wheat has already been harvested or where cotton and wheat have been hailed out. If in the ground by the first of July, a mid-October harvest can be expected. It can be planted as late as the middle of July.

US In Critical Period Jr. Senator Asserts

"My state comes first...before politics, before party, before expediency, before personal ambition." So said Sen. John Tower at a gathering of 300 Panhandle Republicans held Saturday evening in Amarillo at Holiday Inn West.

SEN. JOHN TOWER

"We are at a critical period in the history of this country. We are on the threshold of a second history," Tower stated. He pointed to the westing spirit that moved pioneer Americans from the East to the West. "The question now is, has the westing spirit gone out of the American people?"

"I'm proud to share a platform with Bob Price because he has the heart and conviction that is part of the great westing spirit of the American people."

In speaking of his election to the Senate, Tower said, "I carried heaviest in Ochiltree. I get back to Perryton every chance I get! You can't beat that 75%."

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Wes Izzard of Amarillo. He recognized Katherine McDaniel of Borger, vice-chairman of Texas Republican Women; Bryce Beard, of Amarillo, one of five Deputy State Republican Chairmen; Jim Campbell, committeeman from the 31st district; Frances Fartheree of Pampa, committeewoman for the 31st District; and Mrs. Jean Wedding of Amarillo, District Director of Republican Women.

Also introduced were Mrs. Wes Izzard, John Kenehan, former county chairman of Randall County, Mrs. Kenehan, Lon Moser, Potter County Republican Chairman and Mrs. Moser, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Price of Pampa; Leon Little and Robert Lee Smith of Lockney, committeemen from the 30th District.

Attending from Randall County were George Heath, Luther Lawless, Buddy Steen, Harold Landrum, Cecil Sims, and Sherwood Blasdel.

For Title IV

Passage Prospects Slim

In an interview with Sen. John Tower Saturday preceeding the "Dinner with Senator Tower" meeting at Holiday Inn West in Amarillo, the junior senator from Texas was asked to comment on the upcoming "Civil Rights Act of 1966."

He was asked to comment in relation to the Title IV or housing section of Senate Bill S. 3296 which is currently being fought by realtors in the Canyon-Amarillo area.

Tower stated, "I believe that on the face of it...I believe there are parts of the bill that are unconstitutional." "Prospects for final passage of the measure are slim."

In relation to his campaign Tower seemed confident of re-election, "If the people are going to judge me on the basis of my record, my pro-Texas position. I have always placed my state above party and politics."

When asked for a comparison of the campaigning in 1962 and currently, he said "The Panhandle is a conservative area. I carried the Panhandle and I see no erosion of my strength. I believe we'll carry it even bigger this time."

"The people of the Panhandle know where I stand."

Applications Taken Under New VA Bill

Certificates of eligibility are currently being taken by the West Texas State University Registrar's Office for students who are seeking educational benefits under the Veterans Readjustment Benefits Act of 1966, said Frank Morgan, WTSU registrar.

The new GI Bill, which became effective June 1, provides for educational opportunities for veterans who have had more than 180 days of active duty since Jan. 31, 1955.

The bill also includes those still in service who have had at least two years active duty since Jan. 31, 1955. According to Jack Coker, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco, more than 21,000 applications are expected in the Waco office during the next twelve months. The Waco office serves 164 counties in Texas covering approximately the northern two-thirds of the state.

Transfer students should present their certificate with their other papers, Morgan said. He also stated that many students brought their certificate when they registered, and some mailed them in advance.

Under the provisions of the GI Bill, veterans with no dependents are paid $100 per month, those with one dependent $125 and those with two or more dependents $150 for full-time training.

For Clifford

Aug. 29 Tentatively Set As Trial Date

BY BOB KERR
Special Correspondent

DENTON--A tentative date of Aug. 29 has been set to hear a murder charge against Bill Clifford, a 33-year-old Canyon farmer and rancher. Clifford, charged with the April 8 shooting death of his estranged wife in a Canyon apartment house, will go on trial for his life. Randall County Criminal Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, in Denton Friday to arrange the trial date, said he will ask the death penalty. Dowlen also said he will be state's lone prosecutor in the case. He will be assisted in empaneling a jury by Dist. Atty. John Lawhon of Denton. Dist. Judge W.C. Boyd Jr., who will hear the case, said the trial date is only tentative.

"I may have to reset the trial sometime in September," he said. "It's pretty hard to get a jury around here in August. So many of the people are on vacation." The judge said the capital case would require a venire of at least 200 people. "The last time we had a capital case in the court here we wound up calling 200-250 people," he said.

A Denton attorney, Jack Gray will be one of the defense lawyers. He and Shuford Farmer of Waco will appear for Clifford in court. Gray entered the case Monday and is a former Denton County judge and district judge.

Clifford remains in the Denton County jail being held without bond.

$3,000 Designated By Randall County

$3,000 was designated for the Amarillo Medical Center by Randall County Commissioners, Monday in regular court session.

The sum, which is to be applied to the salary of an administrator, will be for the year 1967. The original request by the center for $5,000 for 1967, 1968, 1969, was put aside with 1968-69 to be considered on a yearly basis.

Motion for this commitment was made by Bill Butler Precinct 4 and seconded by Clarence Beckman, Precinct 2.

A joint meeting of Randall County and the City of Canyon to consider merging Civil Defense activities will be held Monday in regular court session.

Mrs. Catherine Wooddell, 4304 Hayden in Amarillo, was named to the Randall County Library Board. She fills the position vacated by Mrs. Cristler Crain who resigned in May.

Rains Vary In The Area

Rain, accompanied by strong winds, fell on Canyon and the surrounding area Tuesday night, with .40 recorded at the Randall County Sheriff's Office. No hail damages were reported.

Charles Conatser, who farms east of the city, recorded .30 and Anton Handing near the Umbarger community reported a small amount of .12.

Edgar Robinson, who farms in the Jowell Community, received 2.30 inches but said that neighbors about one mile south recorded about four inches during the down-pour.

The smallest amount was recorded by Forrest Gruner, six miles north of the city, who received only .02.

Although high gusts of wind accompanied the Friday storm and some hail fell, no severe damage was reported.

Other rainfall amounts included Sheriff's Office, .65; Conatser, 1.10; and Maria Fortin, 10 miles northwest .75.

Firemen Douse Blaze With 'Foam'

Ablaze . . .

BY LORENA MILLER

When they don't have a fire... they set it...and then local volunteer firemen converge on the scene to douse the fire with FOAM.

Foam fire fighting is a relatively new procedure for the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department according to Jack Jennings, fire chief.

The fire set by the local department last Wednesday evening was on a vacant lot adjacent to the new City Barn. Object of the blaze was a wrecked car filled with discarded tires and other flammable materials.

... Out With Foam

Chief Jennings and Joe Rice, fire captain, and several other firemen were first to arrive at the scene.

"It is too bad we have to burn it," said Jennings, as Rice and other firemen began pouring three five-gallon cans of gasoline over the car and its contents.

The torch was set...and fire officials stepped back to watch the fire grow as additional units of the department were waiting about a quarter of a mile away.

The alarm was sounded and waiting units rushed forward with their red signals flashing as they attached fire hoses to nearby hydrants.

Special foam applying equipment was attached to the truck and special nozzles were attached to the end of each hose and the fight was begun at 8:13 p.m.

Within about five minutes the fire had been extinguished and the demolished car lay bathed in a white glaze of foam.

"Foam fire fighting has been used by airports and aboard ships for a number of years," said Jennings, "but we haven't used it locally very long."

"Water goes about four times as far when we use foam" Jennings said. "Foam can be used for all sorts of gasoline fires such as on wrecked tanker trucks, or airplane crashes, or either accidents of this sort."

"The foam has a smothering effect on the blaze," Jennings commented. "The foam comes in five gallon cans and is mixed with the water at a special eductor which is attached to the truck's pumping unit."

Another type of eductor may be carried by firemen when they can get close enough to the fire to use it according to Jennings, "but we can spray the foam as far away as the truck is with the special truck adapter."

"The eductor is used to create the proper mixture through valves on the truck," said Jennings. "Cost of the foam is too high to use on grass fires and other fires of this sort where water will work as well."

Jennings who has been fire chief for 15 years, reported on a recent inspection by state fire insurance engineers during early May.

"The report was the most favorable that we have had since I've been with the department," smiled Jennings.

"We haven't had a fire loss in the city proper during 1966," added Joe Rice, who has been fire captain for five years.

"Fire insurance rates for every individual homeowner are governed by the losses we sustain," said Rice. "The loss of one home or business establishment in the city has a definite effect on the pocketbook of every individual."

"We are just now recovering from the fire which destroyed the Pharmacy in 1961," commented Rice. "The State Fire Insurance Commission regulates rates of local fire insurance and though we can only lose 5 per cent per year, we can go as low as a deficit of 15 per cent."

The hazards of fire loss to human life and valuable property are only a part of the job entailed by local volunteer firemen who remain on call around the clock.

Regular volunteers must drill a minimum of two hours twice each month to meet regulations of the state fire board. An average of 23 volunteers meet on the second and third Wednesday nights of each month to meet this requirement.

"We have 32 volunteer firemen," said Jennings adding that nine are also required to meet with the emergency unit on the first and fourth Wednesday nights of the month.

"Sometimes we meet and play dominoes for awhile, but when drill time comes---everyone is all ready for a rugged schedule of practices," Jennings commented.

The plectron system, which was installed late last summer, is tested every day at noon according to Jennings. The alarm system has warning units in each volunteer fireman's home and place of business, so they are constantly on the alert.

"The large fire alarm is tested on the first Wednesday of every month," Jennings added. "The city fire alarm is used in the event of emergencies and is also used as the alert system for approaching tornadoes."

"Eight blasts means a tornado is approaching and six blasts means all is clear," said Jennings.

Among equipment of the local fire department is a portable generator, which is mounted on a trailer and can be taken to neighboring towns in the event of emergencies there. "We took the generator to Hale Center but never did use it," added Jennings.

"With the generator, we can hook our radio up and still be in service in the event of an emergency here," said Jennings. "The generator will also operate the plectron system while we are in a state of emergency."

An average of 250 fires are reported to the Fire Department during a twelve-month period according to Joe Rice, fire captain.

"Some months we have a lot of fires, other months we may not have but one or two," said Rice. "This is due in large part to the general conditions, such as rain and moisture. If we have spring rains we may miss the grass fire season and then have an outbreak of wheat stubble fires or vice versa."

Fire fighting is not the only service offered by the Fire Department which is also equipped to handle dragging operations at Buffalo Lake, life saving emergencies within the city and county, or saving a youth who has fallen from a ledge in Palo Duro Canyon.

"The emergency unit is usually called on to handle a majority of these types of accidents," said Jennings.

"We practice with our boat and grappling hooks at Buffalo Lake quite often," said Jennings "and then we are prepared when an emergency arises."

"Among our new equipment is a parachute harness which can be used effectively at Palo Duro Canyon when we have someone injured in a fall," Jennings said. "The parachute harness with a backstrap saves up to two hours of former rescue operation, where we had to sometimes walk five miles to get to the injured person."

"Now we can lower our men over the edge of the ledge, let them strap on the injured person and then lift the injured person to safety," Jennings related.

Among other emergency equipment at the Fire Department is a resuscitator, which was donated through contributions of a number of men's civic and women's clubs in Canyon. Another item which is available is a "port-o-power" hydraulic jack which is used to push or pull cars from danger and may also be used to release an injured person from a wrecked automobile or other accidents of this sort.

And for 365 days each year the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department remains on call to save the lives and property of the citizens of Canyon and Randall County.

Scouts Visit Low Family

Paul Stapp and Buddy Myers will be houseguests of the J.E. Low family this week end before continuing on a bicycle vacation to Colorado.

Stapp is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Stapp of Crowell and Myers is a friend from Odessa. Stapp, 16, is an Eagle Scout and has earned 43 merit badges. Last year he was the winner of the Northwest Texas Field and Stream Association trophy for his contributions to game conservation.

A reception for scouts has been planned at the Low home, 2512 13th Ave., at 5 p.m. Saturday afternoon when Stapp will discuss his scouting activities with local scouts. During his visit, Stapp will present special music at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Tax Meetings To Be Slated

A tax re-evaluation program for the Canyon Independent School District has been completed and tax payers will be sent form letters asking them to meet with Bill McMorries and Associates, who compiled the program, any one of five days beginning June 27 and concluding July 1.

Huelyn Laycock, superintendent of Canyon Public Schools, said dates for the meetings would be divided into four groups and would specify when the tax payers could meet with McMorries. Following each of these meetings, the Equalization Board will hold sessions for questions concerning any tax problems the group might have.

Each meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and continue through 4 p.m. in the commons area at Canyon High School.

The properties in the School District have been appraised, said Secretary of the Board Wesley Cox, "in the hope of curing the inequities that have existed in our tax structure.'

Enrollment Increases 28 Percent

Enrollment has exceeded expectations for the first summer term at West Texas State University, with 2,616 students registered, showing a record-breaking 28 per cent increase over 1965.

After the first day of registration, President James P. Cornette had estimated that about 2,550 would be enrolled by the deadline Saturday noon. The 2,616 was an increase of 569 over the final first term enrollment of 2,047 last year.

Part of the increase is accounted for through larger enrollment in such special programs as workshops and the mathematics and English summer institutes.

Register Now For Whiskers

Registration is now open for all men desiring to enter the annual "beard contest" which has become an attraction of the Randall County Roundup.

Second place "whiskers" will receive a $10 prize. Trophies and plaques will also be awarded for second and third place in the contest according to Carl Miller, chairman.

Those desiring to enter the contest are urged to sign-up with Miller at the Buffalo Barber Shop. Sign-ups will be taken through Saturday, July 16, at 6 p.m.

All persons living in Randall County are eligible to compete in the beard contest, but must be registered with the Jaycee chairman to be eligible for prizes in the judging on Saturday, July 23.

Shaving permits have been ordered and will be available within the next few weeks from any Jaycee member. Those not registered for the beard contest or wearing a shaving permit, which sells for $1, will be dunked in the horse tank during the final days of the celebration.

Hostesses for the occasion were the installing officers. Guests were registered at a table decorated with red and gold candles, colors used by the worthy matron.

"Let Your Light So Shine" was the theme selected by Mrs. Walters. Her scripture from Matthew 5:14-15 read "We are the light of the world, a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid, neither do men, light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick, and it givith light unto all that are in the house."

"We have seen this star in the east and are come to worship Him" was used as Mrs. Walter's motto. Her emblem was the candle; her colors were red and gold; and her flower was the red rose.

A reception was held in the Masonic Hall at the conclusion of the installation. Decorating the table was a large star shaped candle, decorated in red roses and gold leaves. The central candle had been the center of decoration on the podium during the installation rites.

R
NINE OUT OF TEN CHILDREN CATCH MEASLES

But now they don't have to. Your physician can vaccinate them against measles, just as he does to prevent small pox. Measles is not a simple disease without problems. One out of every six children with measles develop a secondary bacterial infection such as a pneumonia or an ear infection. While these infections usually respond to a doctor's care, why allow serious trouble? About one out of every 1,000 cases develop encephalitis — an infection for which there is as yet no specific treatment.

Since the conquest of polio, measles cause more deaths than any other common disease of childhood. If your chid has not had measles, and has not yet been vaccinated against it, visit a physician soon.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

MISS BEVERLY BANKS is presented a gift by Jim Martin on behalf of the Canyon Kiwanis Club for selling the most tickets to the recent dance recital presented by students of Barbara Banks. Proceeds will be used in public service projects sponsored by the Kiwanis.

Kiwanians Hear Playwright

Members of Canyon Kiwanis Club heard Playwright Paul Green describe scenes from the symphonic drama, "TEXAS" at a luncheon meeting on Friday, American Legion Hall.

Green, introduced by Mrs. Ples Harper, told Kiwanians that the production represents a new kind of drama, a use of light and sound that is being used at the Acropolis in Athens and the National Palace in Madrid.

In expressing the idea of the symphonic drama he said "We want to make our statement, to be able to say I counted for something, I tried as best I could."

"We yearn to count for something. We turn to the light like the sunflower. It shows man in search of himself. The great venture of man on earth."

Guests introduced included Mrs. Green, Issac Van Grove, who is composing and arranging music for "TEXAS", Mrs. Van Grove and Miss Barbara Banks.

Miss Beverly Banks was presented a gift from Kiwanis for selling 41 tickets to the recent dance recital given by students of Barbara Banks. Presentation was made by Jim Martin, chairman of the project. Proceeds of $136.50 will be used for public service projects sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

A report on the Kiwanis-sponsored baseball teams was given by George Ritter.

activities: 157, one activity; 119, two activities; and 117, three or more activities.

The survey, with the heaviest concentration on those students between the ages of ten and thirteen, showed that of the 205 girls polled, their preferred activities were church, one; Girl Scouts, two; and chorus, three. In order of preference, the boys enjoyed Little League, church and Boy Scouts.

Of the activities in which they did not participate, both boys and girls indicated they would choose swimming as their first choice. The girls said they liked crafts second and softball and bowling tied for third selection.

The boys also placed bowling third and ranked archery as their second choice.

Rev. Pederson said 43 per cent of those questioned lived outside of Canyon's city limits, and that transportation for them to town where activities could be found might prove to be too prohibitive.

Mrs. Aubrey Crossland, who is chairman of a committee to study the problems of pornographic literature being distributed in the Canyon area, said she could report that no grocery stores in the city sold objectionable literature.

She did, however, say that several establishments knew the committee was coming and took many of the magazines from their shelves.

The members, she said, introduced themselves and told the owners of their purpose. She added that everyone contacted gave their full cooperation.

Although the group did not spend too much time with paperbacks, Mrs. Crossland said the writing in some of the magazines observed was worse than the pictures.

Discussing motion pictures, Hinders said the committee had discussed the problem with Charles Donnell, who owns two theatres in the city, and he had promised to help in any way he could. He also added that on Friday nights, many parents use the theatre as a "baby-sitter". He said that Donnell had hired extra help to see that order was maintained.

"We have accomplished a lot without alienating a great number of people," Hinders told the nine members present.

Next meeting of the organization will be conducted during the latter part of August.

Miss Hicks Weds McNeill In Frankston Ceremonies

Miss Judith Lynn Hicks became the bride of John Wayne McNeill in nuptial ceremonies Saturday evening, June 11, at the Methodist Church Building in Frankston, Tex.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Hicks of Frankston and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R.W. McNeill of Route 1, Happy.

Double-ring vows were read by Olis Pinson, minister of the Church of Christ. Mrs. Edwin Fitzgerald provided appropriate wedding music at the organ and the bride's uncle, G.S. Hicks, presented vocal selections.

The marriage was performed before an altar which was flanked with greenery and spiraled candelabra. Magnolia leaves, white stock and gladoli accented the altar area.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of cameo peau de soie and Venetian lace with a modified empire bodice design and an A-line skirt. The molded bodice and elbow length sleeves were outlined with appliqued lace and the watteau chapel length train was outlined with a wide lace border.

The bridal headdress was a double crown of lace and pearls which held a three tiered English illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of daisies, stephanotis, English ivy and tulle.

Miss Ann Lee McNeill, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Countess McNeill, and a cousin of the bride, Miss Kay Cook.

MRS. JOHN WAYNE McNEILL

COOK OF THE WEEK

Shares Baking Secrets

BY LORENA MILLER

Recipes for Yeast Bread and Apple Torte are shared with our readers this week by Mrs. Frank Grabber, northwest of Canyon.

Mrs. Grabber, who was born in Illinois, is the former Clara Detten of St. Francis, east of Amarillo.

"When I was young, about 8 years old, my folks moved from Illinois and settled at St. Francis in 1907," said Mrs. Grabber.

The Grabbers were married in 1919 at St. Francis and established their home there until 1945 when they moved to Randall County and settled between Umbarger and Canyon.

"We lived at St. Francis until ten of our eleven children were born," recalled Mrs. Grabber. Her husband, who farmed for many years, is now retired from his occupation and the youngest son, Ed, has taken over the family farming operations.

Three of the Grabber's daughter's have joined the convent. Sister Mary Edward, CCVI, was the first of the three sisters to join the convent in 1938. Originally named Teresa, Sister Mary Edward teaches at Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. She holds a BA degree from Incarnate Word College and MA degree from the University of Texas.

Sister Mary Gertrude, OSB, joined the convent in 1952. She is presently a supervisor for some 40 girls ages 5-18 at St. Joseph's Home in Little Rock, Ark. Sister Mary Gertrude was originally named Leona.

Joining the convent in 1957 was Sister Mary Aloysius, OSB, who presently teaches elementary school in Fayetteville, Ark. The former Bernice Grabber, is working toward her degree at St. Scholastica College in Atchison, Kan.

The three Sisters are home this week to visit with their parents and brothers and sisters who live in the Canyon area.

"We are allowed two weeks off every three years," said Sister Mary Aloysius as her mother added that "this is the first time that the Sisters have all had an opportunity to be home together for their full two weeks since they joined the convent."

The three Sisters hope to return to their family home together again in 1969 when their parents will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The Grabbers observed their 47th wedding anniversary Sunday with a hamburger fry for all of their children and grandchildren.

Unable to attend the occasion was a daughter, Florence, (Mrs. Harry Arndt) who lives in Coleman, Ala. with her husband and 11 children including a two-month-baby.

Other children of the Grabbers include Miss Mary Grabber, who is records-librarian at Neblett Hospital and Clinic in Canyon.

Margaret is Mrs. C.E. Bertrand of Amarillo and has six children. Son John, who lives near Umbarger, also has six children. Mrs. Richard E. Friemel (Lillian) lives near Umbarger and has four children.

Eugene and his wife, who live in Canyon, have one child. He is with the Canyon Post Office. Bernard and his family, which includes two children, live northwest of Canyon where he farms.

The youngest son, Ed, was married in April to the former Judy Gibson. Ed and Judy live near the homeplace which they farm.

"Most of our children attended grade school at St. Francis," said Mrs. Grabber. "Six have high school diplomas from Umbarger High School. Other than the Sisters, Ed is the only one to have studied in college."

"I taught all of my girls how to cook and sew," smiled Mrs. Grabber. "I sewed for the children, until they were big enough to do their own sewing."

"It was grand raising the kids——they always seemed to get along so good together," recalled Mrs. Grabber. "My daughters-in-law and sons-in-law have all just fitted right into the family and we still all have a marvelous time when we get the opportunity to be together."

The Grabbers are members of St. Mary's Catholic Church at Umbarger and Mrs. Grabber is active in the Christian Mothers Society at the church.

Mrs. Grabber, who has cooked in quantities for many years, still makes her usual nine loaves of bread each week.

"I make three loaves of whole wheat bread and about six loaves of white," said Mrs. Grabber. "And then too, I always make several pans of cinnamon rolls for the grandchildren."

For her bread making, Mrs. Grabber has used an unusual "bread mixer" for about six years. The mixer which was originally purchased at Thompson's of Canyon takes only eight minutes of mixing time according to Mrs. Grabber.

"You just mix up the ingredients and then let them stir in the mixer until they have doubled in bulk and give a couple of stirs and let it rise again," Mrs. Grabber commented. "Then I make the dough out into loaves, let rise, and spend the afternoon baking."

Bread and rolls make excellent freezer items according to Grabber as she gave the following recipes:

YEAST BREAD
8 cups lukewarm water (use part potato water)
2 pkg. dry yeast
1/2 cup sugar

Sprinkle sugar over yeast and allow to dissolve for about five minutes. Stir the yeast down then add:

1 cup melted shortening or lard
21 level cups flour
3 Tbsp. salt

Mix salt with flour. Add to water-sugar mixture and crank for 8 minutes. Allow to rise until double in bulk, stir down. Allow to rise again, stir down, and shape into loaves. Place in pans and let rise until double in bulk and then bake at 350 degrees for about one hour.

APPLE TORTE
2 cups sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup soft butter
2 cups flour
1 1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
Nuts or coconut (about 1 cup)
1 tsp. vanilla
3 cups grated fresh apple

Mix in order given and bake in greased and floured pan at 300 degrees for about 35 minutes. Can bake longer, until a golden crust is formed. Optional additions are raisins, cherries or chopped dates.

This cake is extra moist and may be kept in the refrigerator or is excellent to freeze.

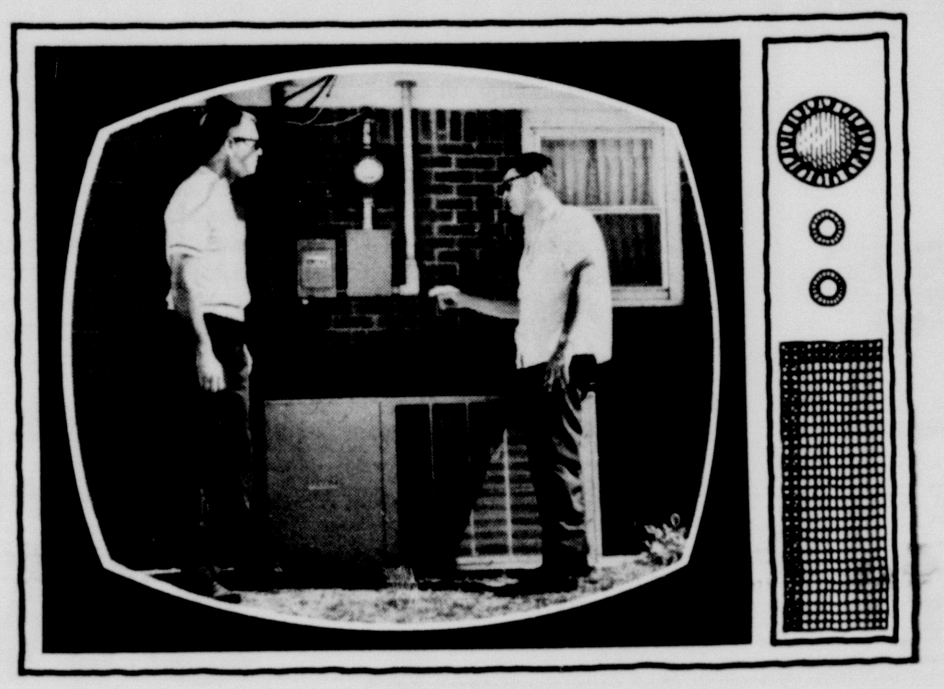
Unless you call in a Carrier Dealer. He knows what to do for any home. And Carrier has a model for every job: 89 different central and room air conditioners. Plenty of good reasons why more people put their confidence in Carrier than in any other make.

Carrier Wayne Wirt Electric



Hi Neighbor! What you got there?

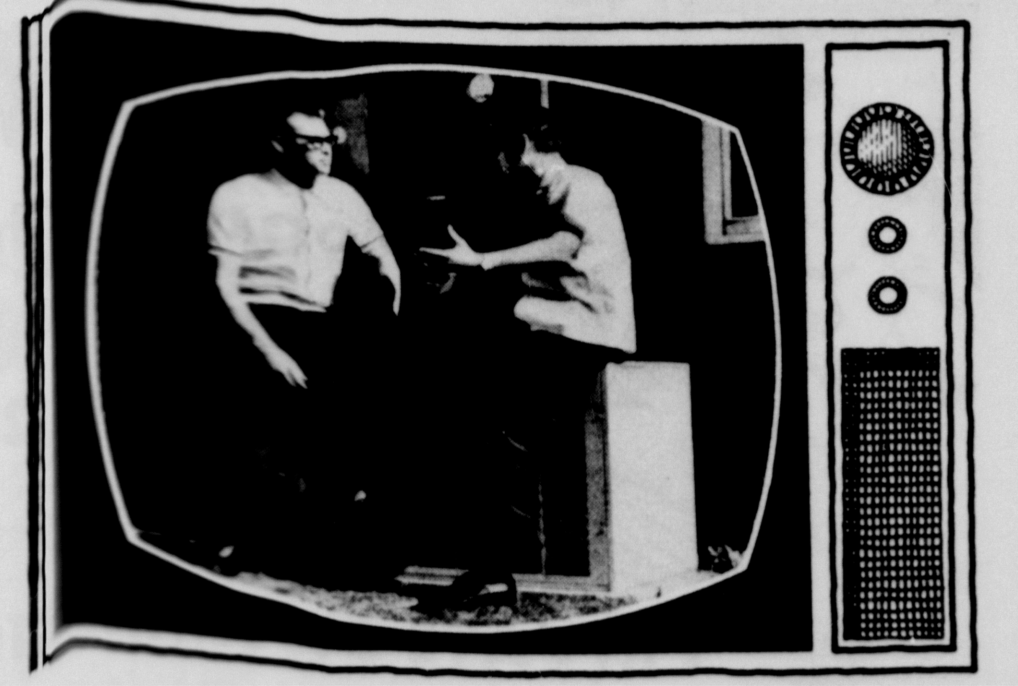
How are you Joe? That's my new air conditioner . . . cools the entire house.

How does it work?

It works great! We've never had it so comfortable . . . sure can notice the difference when you go in the house. We sleep better at night, too.

Doesn't take up much space does it?

That's one of the things I like about it . . . not any bigger than a living room chair, see you can sit on it, just about the right height.



Where's the water connection?

That's another thing I like . . . doesn't use any water, just low cost, dependable electricity and free air. See, just one connection like your refrigerator.

I'll have to admit you're right there. We've had our electric refrigerator for over 15 years and she's still perking right along.

Be cool with an electric air conditioner. For more information, call your Southwestern Public Service Company manager.

County Agent's Column

Wheat harvest is getting underway in Randall County. A few fields were sampled in the late days of last week. Early planted dryland wheat is mature and will be harvested first. The late planted irrigated wheat will be the last to mature. There has been some hail damage to ripening wheat in scattered areas of Randall County. The total damage is not great.

Mosquitoes disturb our sleep by their humming, and inflict itching bites. Some species can infest us with diseases such as dengue fever and encephalitis. The area around Canyon now has a healthy supply of active mosquitoes.

The most effective way to control mosquitoes is to eliminate breeding places. Water is necessary for their breeding. Females lay their eggs on water or in places that later become flooded. Containers which hold water such as discarded automobile tires, cans, cisterns, cesspools, fire barrels, rain barrels, tubs, rain gutters, and stagnant water ponds should be emptied, drained, or treated.

Adult mosquitoes in your home may be killed readily with insecticides. Use an aerosol spray designed to kill flying insects. Follow directions on the container label. The use of insecticides outside is not very effective unless done on an extensive area. The elimination of breeding places is the secret of good control.

Randall County wheat farmers are due to receive a 15% increase in wheat acres for fall seeding. Final details on increased allotments and how this increase will fit into the USDA wheat program should be received in ample time for growers to prepare extra land for fall planting.

*****

The Randall County 4-H Club dairy judging team placed 7th in the state contest at College Station, Texas last week. This is a good showing since only the top teams in the state are eligible to compete. Eddie Hinders was high point man on the Randall County team. Other members were Mike Hinders, Jerry Crain, and Clifford Boehning.
